REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Clarendon County School District Three serves approximately 1200 students within two campus sites. All schools are fully accredited on the state and national levels by the SC Department of Education and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools/AdvancED. Our district supports the provision of challenging experiences for all children. The parents and community members believe that the exceptional educators in Clarendon Three are the key to a student's successful progress. The district supports the school administrations with professional development offerings. The district also maintains a strong bond with F. E. DuBose Career Center, Central Carolina, and Camp Bob Cooper. Clarendon Three realizes the value of providing innovative technology for teaching and learning in the classrooms. All schools are wired for the Internet. Each school campus has computer labs featuring wireless technologies, which promote 21st century learning. In addition, all labs support computer-based programs for differentiation and evaluation, and online credit recovery tools for students. Most of the district's classrooms have interactive whiteboards. Apple iPads were presented to some teachers through an application process for improving instruction. Multiple mobile devices are scheduled for deployment at the start of the 2012-2013 school year. Clarendon Three is very proud of our many accomplishments and success stories. The district earned an Excellent growth rating and was rated number 16 in the state per an overall absolute index. Walker-Gamble Elementary earned the Silver Award for outstanding student academic performance. East Clarendon Middle/High School earned the Gold Award for excellent results in closing the achievement gaps. The district's on-time graduation rate was 88%. The Class of 2012's ninety-two graduates had a total of $1,711,200.00 in various scholarships.
